Sunday, February 8 - Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time The Road to Discipleship: Compassion and healing

February 11 is the World Day of the Sick. This Sunday's Gospel speaks of Jesus healing those who were sick and "possessed with demons." Jesus sought healing for the entire person—spirit, soul, and body. Illness and suffering are heavy burdens. When ill, we experience powerlessness, limitation, weakness, and mortality—which none of us enjoy. Yet Christ "took our infirmities and bore our diseases" (Matt 8:17). Do I carry my own illnesses with grace? The God of all consolation comforts us in all our afflictions. Through Jesus Christ, God enables us to comfort others who are suffering illnesses of the spirit, soul, or body. Start by praying for them!
