November 8 - 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Road to Discipleship: Faithful Giving & Living

In today's Gospel, Mark contrasts the rich scribes with the poor widow, who has put far less money in the treasury box than other people. She has contributed all she had from her livelihood and has shown her total trust in God by doing so. This story of the widow's offering suggests that faithful giving—and faithful living—are for the sake of the giver as much, if not more than, for the sake of the recipients. Our ability to be good stewards of God's many gifts requires a conversion of outlook from self-centered to God-centered. As disciples of Christ, we are called to share our gifts of time, talent, and treasure with all of God's people.

St. Joseph's College Annual Hymns & Readings - Sunday, December 6, at 7:30 p.m. in St. Joseph's Basilica. The event will feature the Greenwood Singers and beautiful organ music. A reception with refreshments will follow in the O'Leary Hall. Admission is by donation.
